

SENATOR MURPHY: I would delighted.

PRESIDENT: You don't need to be that enthusiastic, Senator. All right, then Senator Murphy asks unanimous consent that the bill be held over until tomorrow. Seeing no objections. So ordered. LB 409. Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: In view of the fact that there is some question about 409, I would also ask that it be bracketed until tomorrow, if it would be agreeable to the introducer. Is that all right.

PRESIDENT: Is that your bill, Senator Carsten?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Senator Carsten's bill, if that is agreeable.

PRESIDENT: The Clerk advises me that there is a part broken in the machine and we may not have it fixed tomorrow, but in any event, you ask unanimous consent that LB 409 be held over until tomorrow, Senator?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Any objection. So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have some more material I can put in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, some additional new bills. LB 669. Read title. LB 670. Read title. LB 671. Read title. LB 672. Read title. LB 673. Read title. LB 674. Read title. See pages 112 and 113. Mr. President, there are two resolutions, LR 103. Read. See pages 113 and 114. Mr. President, this should properly just be read and laid over. Mr. President, another resolution, LR 104. Read. See pages 115 and 116. LR 105. Read. See page 116, Journal. Mr. President, another resolution, LR 106. Read title. See pages 116, 117 and 118. Mr. President, there are some announcements somewhere. Mr. President, the Executive Board will meet at noon each day for the first ten days for the purpose of referring bills. Signed Senator Mahoney. Mr. President, Senator Kennedy asks unanimous consent to unbracket LB 299 on General File.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? Seeing none, it is so ordered. As part of the continuing bicentennial celebration here in the Capitol Building, the first program will be held this noon in the rotunda of the Capitol, and entertaining the members of the Legislature and many other citizens of the state will be 60 members of the Mini-Singers Chorus of the Omaha Public Schools and that group is in the South balcony and we want to assure all of you that we are anxiously awaiting your performance out in the rotunda. I think we ought to welcome this fine group at this time.

CLERK: Mr. President, one final new bill, LB 675. Read Title. See Page 118, Legislative Journal.
